Assistant Fire Chief Report June 14th, 2021

EMR class is finished, all participants passed.

County Wildland class was held on June 6th 2021, we had 3 members from our department participate, Christian and myself assisted in teaching class.

June 9th was the county conflagration readiness drill in Amity, almost 70 people attended from the tri county area.

June 17th will be a wildland class out close to Laughlin Logging.

The fire science class is done for the year. From the class this year we have 4 new volunteers.

Our departments conflagration readiness personnel and apparatus list is complete. We currently have 8 people currently ready to go for conflagration this year.

Volunteers are gearing up for derby day, and national night out.
