District Policies

VOLUNTEER

VOL – 916

Political Activities of Volunteers

Issued: July 8, 2014

1. Official Position: Campaigning

Volunteers may not use their official authority or position with the District to further the cause of any political party or candidate for nomination or election to any political office.

2. On Duty Activity

Oregon law forbids any District volunteer, while on duty or when representing the District from soliciting money, influence, service or other article of value or otherwise aiding and/or promoting any political cause or the nomination or election of any person for public office.

3. Nothing in this policy is intended to restrict the political actions or activities of volunteers outside of their regular working hours.
